R179	Continued From page 1  completed by 3 of 3 staff members reviewed. Findings include:  Per review of personnel records there was no evidence that 3 of 3 staff members reviewed who were responsible for providing direct care to residents had received the required training in general supervision and care of residents.  The home's Assistant Manager confirmed, during interview, the lack of training for each of the staff members. S/he stated that although new staff members receive training in this area during their orientation period there was no ongoing annual training provided.	R179	See attached for corrective action -
